High Rating Given Local Educators

One of the highest ratings ever accorded the Carmel Unified School District's teaching program was received through an unofficial survey made February 19 by Dr. Abraham Fischler, a professor of education at the University of California, who was formerly an assistant professor of education at Harvard. Dr. Fischler had addressed an audience the previous evening at Sunset School in the second lecture under the Adventures In Education series sponsored by the school district here.

Dr. Fischler was accompanied by Medill Bair, district superintendent, and expressed himself as highly elated over the efficiency of the elementary and junior high school teaching program and of the actual teaching demonstrations he was able to witness. One of the highlights emphasized was the studied responsibility of teachers toward the individualization of instruction to students.

This has all been substantiated by tests conducted in local schools in comparison with the norm of tests reported in a nation-wide survey. Carmel school students generally rate about 10 percent higher than average standard revealed in the national tests.

This encouraging report was revealed last night at the regular meeting of the Carmel Unified School District Board of Education. Superintendent Bair stated that tests will be continued over a period of years for the purpose of more efficiently evaluating student performance and expectancy based on intelligence quotient as against what appears on report cards. Through the accumulation of such data, methods of teaching are constantly being improved and revised, it was revealed, supplemented by measures of ability and comparative achievement of students.

Matters relating to the budget for the coming school year were also discussed, resulting in Super-

The saddest words I've ever seen
Is this lament: "It might have been."
That's optimism in reverse—
It might have been a whole lot worse.
If but for that or these or those,
If something else, or just suppose
Some other happenstance occurred—
Would you by chance have been a bird?
If you'd been born some other place,
Would you have been some other race?
If you had started out one day,
Would you have gone some other way?
If you had made a choice somehow,
Would you be where you are right now?
Would you be better off or not
If what you wished was what you got?
Since wishing can't change history,
What might have been was not to be.
The past is gone. I'm wondering
What this next hundred years will bring!

Colonel Harlan C. Wilder (center) reviews the citation accompanying his award of the Great Meritorious Service Cross of the Meritorious Service Order of the Federal Republic of Germany with Brigadier General Heinz Huekelheim (left), chief of German Military Air Attachés, while Major Arthur W. Heyer, aide to General Huekelheim, holds the medal.

Colonel Wilder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cree Wilder, are long-time Carmel residents, and his son, Harlan Gordon Wilder, is a student at Monterey Peninsula College. His daughter, Mrs. Gary (Shirlee) Laturno has just returned from Germany, where her husband was serving as a 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Army, and is currently visiting her parents in Washington, D.C.

Colonel Wilder, now commander of a Military Air Transport Service special missions unit at Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland, was decorated for meritorious service while commander of the Atlantic Air Rescue Center at Ramstein Air Base, Germany. He was praised by the German authorities for directing numerous assistance, rescue and search operations during disasters involving German people. Units under his command also flew rescue missions when the liner Lakonia sank in the Atlantic in 1963.

The recipient of the award was commissioned in 1941 at the aviation cadet training school at Brooks Field, Texas, and saw service in World War II in Alaska, the Pacific and Europe. He is a graduate of Monterey Union High School and San Jose State College and holds a master's degree in business administration from the University of Southern California.

Concerted Action Needed To Crystallize Sentiment Affecting Carmel's Future

BY HARRY FLETCHER

That Carmel is at this moment in its history at a new "crossroads" in its decision to either retain the village atmosphere so much desired by the majority of old-time residents, or to give way to the demands of so-called progress, and permit expansion, modernization and "progress" in both commercial and residential development, is of concern to all.

True it is that "crossroads" have been reached at many intervals in the past, with resultant enactment of ordinances, resolutions, and statements of municipal policy; but, nevertheless, there is ample evidence that once again there has appeared that insidious, whispering, brain-washing undercurrent of agitation for a more liberal policy aimed at overcoming the restrictions and intentions spelled out in a limited way by former city officials and the "founding fathers" of this community.

Now is the time, as never before, for concerted action and the audible voice of those who demand that Carmel be kept "as is" now and in the future. These decisions cannot be left wholly in the hands of the City Council, the Planning Commission, the Citizens Committee, or the handful of individuals who represent those bodies. It is now imperative that residents, property owners, shop keepers, and other commercial interests, in addition to motel and hotel operators, make themselves heard in no uncertain terms to give definite direction to those worthy individuals who give their time and talents to governing Carmel's course and destiny.

These are the conclusions reached by this reporter through attendance at various governmental meetings, listening to remarks made by individual officials, talking to the man on the street, and overhearing the comments of visitors in our village. Everybody wants something done, but nobody wants to take the initiative. You hear people ask, "Why don't they do thus and so?" Who are "they?" Are "they" the city officials who are trying to find out what is best for Carmel? Are "they" the planners who pass on recommendations for the Council to approve or disapprove of this or that building, alteration, addition, or improvement? Or is it not true that (Continued on Page Sixteen)

New Ordinance to Control Fence Construction; Leidig And Godwin Join Group

For the purpose of limiting the height of fences, defining materials which may be used, and restrictions in regard to adjacent property, the Carmel Planning Commission, at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, sent its recommendation to the City Council that the City Attorney draft a new ordinance governing these and other related regulations. Action was held over from last week's study session to hear the report of the ad hoc committee on this matter.

In other action, the Planning Commission recommended that the statue of Junipero Serra be left where it is in Devendorf Plaza, and that no future memorialization of individuals be permitted on public property. Request had been made by local organizations to have the wooden statue placed somewhere on the center strip of Ocean Avenue.

The proposed addition to the rear of the Derek Rayne apparel shops on Ocean Avenue was revived with the reapproval of plans for a period of 90 days. It was reported that the firm plans extensive expansion, combined with a provision for a small underground parking lot, excavation for which is expected to start within the next few days. Some of the preliminary reconstruction work has already been completed, it was reported. Total cost of the remodeling and expansion work has not been announced.

Also approved were plans for a new commercial building for Mrs. Julie Gillette on the west side of Mission Street between Fifth and Sixth Streets; remodeling of a portion of the interior of Cypress West Hotel; approval of a commercial building for Harold Nielsen at the corner of Dolores and Seventh; and new awnings for two local shops.

Various small signs over private property were approved, including a directional sign standard for Vandervort Court at Seventh and San Carlos, and a sign over the sidewalk at the "Flair" shop between Monte Verde and Lincoln on Ocean Avenue.

Following adjournment, the annual meeting of the Planning Commission was called to order by City Clerk Hugh Bayless to receive nominations for a new chairman, after swearing in two new commission members, Glenn F. Leidig and William Godwin. Mrs. Dorothy von Meier was re-elected to the office of chairman of the Planning Commission, as was Mrs. Florence Josselyn as vice-chairman, and Hugh Bayless as secretary. Retiring members were Anthony R. Vasconcellos and Hugh Smith, who were given a vote of thanks and commendation for their services.

Committees appointed for the ensuing year were: Planning and Conservation—Fred Keeble, Glenn Leidig, and Mrs. von Meier; Design Review—J. B. Martin, Jr., George Wilcox, and William Godwin; Land Use and Zoning—Mrs. Josselyn and George Wilcox.

Fire Department And Ambulance Busy Here

Since last Friday the Red Cross Ambulance, operated by the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department, responded to emergency calls involving two auto accidents and four medical or injury emergencies.

The Fire Department was called to wash down gasoline in nine instances, all due to warm weather and full gas tanks in autos. 26 men and all equipment were called out by a general alarm last evening at 7:10 p.m. to the residence of Mrs. Clara Crowley on Mission Street between 10th and 11th, where damage to a sofa, estimated at between $150-$200, resulted from a fire of undetermined origin. There was also minor smoke damage.

Well, they went and had the Side Winder Yo-yo contest ahead of schedule. The kids got so good at it and everybody was ready, so no point in waiting. And what do you know? Turns out the fair sex yo's a meaner yo than the fellas. Overall winner was 6th grader Diane Wermuth. She and runner-ups, 6th grader John Duhring and 5th grader Stanley Shepard won handsome desk sets. Holly Irwin was the 5th grade's lady champ. All four received loving cups and every contestant got a pretty ribbon to show he'd been in there winding.

We nearly had a tragedy last "Fun Day" at Monterey Marina when Monterey Bay Yacht Racing Association president Pete Stuber fell out of his Tero. Or rather, that's what Pete thought. He swam frantically towards "safety" for 50 yards before somebody told him he was in only 3 feet of water.

Ray Cannon and his Sandpiper Club engaged that very good teacher, Al Daoud, to start a beginners' folk dance class at Carmel High School and it's more fun than anything I've done in a long time. (I just may be able to shake that exercise class the kids talked me into. After all, I don't want to lose all of me, and at this rate pleasantly plump could easily become scarily skinny.) In this class they do rounds and squares as well as line and couple folk dances. There's a very small fee and anybody who's interested can join next Tuesday night at 7:30 at the cafeteria. Here's one sport you don't have to have a lot of expensive equipment for. Just you, a good beat and good feet.

1925 and Mrs. Curtis tried to get him to stay and learn candy making. But he was a brick mason and determined to become a boxer, so off he went a-wandering. Tears in his eyes, he thanked me and practically fractured by fingers saying goodbye. I looked at his hands. Enormous! No wonder Mrs. Curtis couldn't get him to make her darling little candies.

Some wag has hung a "thing" on the wall of the note department at the Crocker bank. Was it put there to prove that people are observant or unobservant? Or was it put there simply so that, when some sucker asks what it is, the young lady can reply brightly, "It's a jello mold?" Is it a means, or an end in itself?

And if they want to be really smart, let's see 'em put the jello up there.

Isabel Ale was setting up her Well Baby Clinic equipment at Red Cross last Thursday when Red Cross Director Dorothy James came in with a huge box. Isabel helped her store it in cabinet and asked what it was. It was Resussy Ann, the famous doll used in life saving classes.

Resussy Ann was made in Norway of very lifelike plastic and cost quite a bundle. After several months of use her mouth tore (us Peninsula resuscitators get pretty rough at times) and they had to send away for a new $75 head.

"The original head was unmistakably Norwegian," said Dorothy, "This one looks much more American."

"All that inter-breathing, no doubt," punned our Isabel.

Pancake Tuesday, Once An English Custom, Is Now Everyday Affair

Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, has been an English institution since time immemorial. This year, in America, "Shrovetide," the days before the beginning of Lent, begins on Sunday and lasts until Ash Wednesday, March 3.

Shrove Tuesday is officially known as Pancake Day because pancakes were once known as "shriving cakes." In early times they were eaten when sins were confessed and offenders shriven or forgiven their errors. Symbolically, the flour used in the cakes stood for the staff of life; the salt for wholesomeness; the eggs for the Lenten spirit; and the milk for innocence.

The earliest pancakes were simply pounded meal mixed with water and baked—much on the order of home-made tortillas. Today, however, pancakes have been so much improved that pancake parties, and pancake restaurants have enjoyed remarkable popularity. The pancake has gone modern and is fashionably correct not only at breakfast, but now at brunch, lunch, supper and evening snacks.

One of the leaders in popularizing the pancake has been Sambo's pancake restaurants situated up and down the West Coast, which have also developed a new instant pancake mix to which only water needs to be added before cooking, and is now packaged and on the market.

DR. LIPSON SPEAKER FOR WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL

"The Brazilian Revolution" will be the subject of a talk by Dr. Leslie M. The program is co-sponsored by the World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula and the Carmel Adult School and is the final lecture in the series initiated last Fall on "The New Look, the Political and Economic Impact of Opposing Ideologies."

Dr. Lipson, a United Nations professor at the university in Rio de Janeiro in 1953, visited Sao Paulo last year just before the coup, at which time he was serving as the campus coordinator of the Agency for International Development's program.

'Mouse Trap' Held Over At White Oaks Theatre

Carmel Valley's White Oaks Theatre is extending their current production of Agatha Christie's "The Mousetrap" for five additional weekends, through March 27. Since its opening, on January 22, it has been playing to good houses every Friday and Saturday evenings. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. and it is advisable to make reservations in advance for the performances. Special group rates are available.

Ron Stokes who has been seen in the role of Giles Ralston for the past five weeks, has been replaced by L. Dale Harris. Stokes, due to pressing television commitments was forced to leave the cast and return to Hollywood. Harris, an actor with theatre background, has stepped into the role with ease and ability.

"The Mousetrap" is a comedy-mystery that keeps the audience guessing to the very end. The play is based on Agatha Christie's novel "Three Blind Mice."

"Winnie-The-Pooh" is also playing every Sunday through March 21. Filled with all the Pooh favorites — Eeyore, Rabbit, Piglet, Kanga, Roo, Owl, and of course, Christopher Robin — the dramatized version has enchanted children and adults alike.

Evening School Offers Business Mathematics

If sufficient interest is indicated, a new class in business mathematics will be added to the evening division curriculum this semester at Monterey Peninsula College, John G. Schaum, evening division dean, has announced.

The class, Business Mathematics 54, involves the study of simple interest, compound interest, bank discount, installment financing, investment yields on securities, depreciation, taxes, fire insurance, cash discounts, payrolls, real estate financing and merchandising markups.

Prerequisite for taking the course is basic or high school mathematics. With Mrs. Ellen Bowers as instructor, the class will meet Monday evenings, 7 to 10 o'clock, starting March 1. Interested persons may telephone the MPC Evening Division office, 375-9821, daily after 1 p.m. to ask to be added to a list of potential enrollees. If there are 15 students by the second meeting, according to Dean Schaub, the class will continue through the end of the semester.

BOBBY JONES DEFENDS TITLE

Congressman Talcott Reports

President Johnson has submitted to Congress a "budget" for conducting the far-flung operations of the Federal Government during the fiscal year ending June 1966. It is noted that he has been acclaimed in some quarters for "limiting" projected Federal expenditures to $99.7 billion.

Each of us should recognize, however, that several bookkeeping shortcuts have been employed to keep the quoted figure below $100 billion. Perhaps it would not be too unkind to state that these deceptive budget figures were formulated solely for "public relations" purposes.

In actual fact, we find that the President is seeking new obligatory authority (permission to spend) in the amount of $106.4 billion for fiscal 1966—and actual disbursements will far exceed that figure. Also, a net increase of 27,000 new Federal employees is planned.

A similar situation exists with respect to the Federal budget for the present fiscal year ending June 1965. Congress was asked a year ago to approve a "budget" of $97.9 billion which actually called for $103.7 billion in new obligatory authority. Again, total disbursements will run much higher when finally computed.

Whenever such astronomical sums are discussed, the layman may be pardoned if he finds it difficult to comprehend the meaning, or even the true magnitude of our Federal fiscal problem. Any attempt to make sense out of the budget document beyond citing the President's request for new obligatory authority is futile because of the many complicated factors involved including the fact that obligations falling due from prior years—often greatly underestimated—render almost meaningless the projection of figures on an annual basis.

Suffice it to say at this point that the fiscal 1966 budget forecasts a deficit of at least $5.4 billion—which would increase red ink spending during five consecutive years to $32.4 billion. To legalize the anticipated excess of spending over income, the Administration is expected soon to request a substantial increase in the current $324 billion national debt limit.

Further ample reason for concern is the fact that the interest charge alone on the national debt stands at $11.5 billion a year. It is impossible to square these facts with Administration claims that it is "prudent" and "frugal" with the taxpayer's dollar.

The need for fiscal responsibility in Washington is evident. In a time of relative prosperity, it is

Public Invited To Planning Conference

The Monterey Planning Council's fourth annual conference at Asilomar on March 13 is expected to attract considerable interest from those interested in planning and the general public, the meetings being open to all. The all-day conference will be held in the chapel of the Pacific Grove conference center beginning with late registration at 8:45 a.m., and closing with a short business session at 5:00 p.m. Since the first conference in 1962, each annual meeting has been featured by analysis of comments requested at the close of the session.

Reservations are $3.00 which includes luncheon in the Asilomar dining room, and may be made with Ed DeMars, council secretary, at the Planning Commission office, 157 W. Alisal Street in Salinas, P.O. Box 1208, Salinas, or phone 424-8611. Mr. DeMars is Monterey County Planning Director.

School News . . .

Plans are being made for a mother-daughter fashion show at Carmelo School on March 9 at 8 p.m. Teachers and children will do the modeling.

The newly organized Cub Scouts at River School will hold their first meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria, and regular meetings will be held on the last Friday of each month.

Carmel High School students will be among those in the Honor Choir and Orchestra concert to be presented at Monterey High School on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. The Honor Choir, consisting of about 160 singers, will be under the direction of Mr. Ralph Wadsworth of Chico State College. Director of the 75 member orchestra is Mr. Vermel of the Fresno Symphony.

Farewell For Caldwells

Lieutenant Colonel (USA ret.) and Mrs. John Caldwell have said goodbye to the many friends they have made during their residence here and are leaving today for Detroit and ultimately Europe. They will visit their family in Detroit and embark from New York when space is available. An apartment is awaiting them in Salzburg, Austria, where they will make "home base," later traveling through other European countries and England. The Caldwells plan to be gone for two or three years and may spend entire seasons in localities they find to their liking.

Colonel Caldwell was at one time associated with Leo Tanous, realtor, and has been active in motel management in Carmel, most recently with the Carmel Sands. He was president of the Carmel Kiwanis Club last year.

In honor of the departing couple, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Little entertained at a cocktail party in their home on Tuesday evening. Numerous friends and business associates were present to enjoy the Little's hospitality and to tender good wishes in saying goodbye to the Caldwells.

On Wednesday Mr. Morgan Stock will discuss the Irish theatre at 3 p.m. Mr. Stock, a Stanford graduate and a holder of a master's degree from that University, is chairman of speech and drama at Monterey Peninsula College. He has appeared at the Golden Bough Theatre, the Pasadena Playhouse, and in summer stock, and he spent two years studying in Ireland.

Anyone is welcome to attend the programs, after which tea will be served.

Mayflower Descendants Meet

The Society of Mayflower Descendants will hold a luncheon meeting on Saturday at 12 noon in the Gold Room of the Mark Thomas Inn, presided over by Miss Florence Baker, Governor of the Society.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Alfred W. Elkington, who will speak on "Western American in 1620." Non-member guests are welcome to attend the luncheon.

Washington's Birthday Baby

Relays of phone calls brought the exciting news from Tripoli, Libya on Washington's Birthday of the birth of a new grandson for Mrs. Leon Dassonville. The new baby, John Dassonville Goss, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goss, and he has one brother, David Jeffrey, age five. Another grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Goss, is a resident of El Cajon.

John's father is a geologist associated with an oil exploration company in Libya. His mother, the former Nancy Dassonville, is a graduate of both Carmel High and Monterey Peninsula College.

Rummage To Riches Sale

"Rummage to Riches," an all-day sale for the benefit of All Saints' Episcopal Day School will be held Saturday in the Agriculture building of the Monterey Fairgrounds, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. A wide variety of merchandise in excellent condition, including new items donated by friends of the Bishop Kip School, as it is also known, have been carefully selected.

Jim Zoellin To Fort Polk

James R. Zoellin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zoellin, left Friday for six months Army reserve training at Fort Polk, Louisiana. Jimmy, who graduated from Carmel High School and attended Monterey Peninsula College, has been associated with his father's business at the Carmel Drive In Grocery.

To cheer him on his way, Jimmy's parents gave a buffet supper at their home on Friday, after which the family and guests met at the Monterey Airport Flight Deck for a final toast and farewells. Among those present were his brother and sister-in-law, Joe and Martha Zoellin, his sisters Sylvia and Julie, his grandmother, Mrs. L. O. Branstetter, a cousin, Brenda Branstetter, Mike Blaney, Ellie Burton, Greg Scott, Marian Fischer, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Vallaire.

What'll We Celebrate First?

A gathering of family members at the home of Frank and Marjory Lloyd (now in Mexico), turned into a perpetual celebration over the Washington's Birthday holiday. Visiting for the long weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F.B. Morse III (Mardi Lloyd) and Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Baylis (Jennefer Lloyd) and their small sons, Owen and Lloyd. Mardi's birthday, that important twenty-first one, was the occasion for several parties at which her sister and brother-in-law, Lucinda and John Williams of Carmel Valley, and her brother and his wife, "Skip" — and Sue Lloyd, joined to make the event a memorable one.

It started off on Saturday when they all met for cocktails and dinner, then on for dancing at Del Monte Lodge. Sunday produced a barbecue, replete with small fry, friends and dogs. Since Mardi's birthday fell on Sunday, midnight Saturday found them at the Mission Ranch to toast with bubbling champagne her attaining majority.

A technical celebration came on Monday, coinciding with the second birthday of Anna Williams at the Carmel Valley home of Johnny and Lucinda. Anna's new brother, Mike, was present, as were cousins, aunts, uncles and grandparents—and probably some uninvited guests lost in the throng. From all reports, Mardi and Anna obviously shared a highly successful party.

Not to be outdone, Johnny Williams had a launching party at the Carmel River Lagoon for the kayak he has recently completed. It floated.

The senior Lloyds left Puerto Vallarta Tuesday and will pick up Will Fay's car to drive it back to Carmel for him, visiting points of interest on the way. With them is Lili (Mrs. F. Robert) Smith, whose husband returned from Mexico on Tuesday.

Funeral services were held today for Mrs. Lenna Gordon Tillett Dahl, who died Tuesday in a local hospital after a brief illness. She was 85 years of age and a native of Louisville, Kentucky.

At the time of her death, Mrs. Dahl made her home with her son, Arthur L. Dahl, Jr. of Pebble Beach. Her husband, the late Arthur L. Dahl, Sr., was at the time of their marriage secretary to Gifford Pinchot, chief of U.S. Forest Service under President Theodore Roosevelt and one-time governor of Pennsylvania. In addition to her son, Mrs. Dahl is survived by four grandsons.

Mrs. Dahl was the author of many short stories, eventually published in book form, and the winner in a national short story contest conducted by the original Life magazine.

Services were held at the Paul Mortuary Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, under the direction of Monterey Carmel J.D. Baha'i Assembly, followed by burial in Alta Mesa Cemetery, Palo Alto.

Friends wishing to make contributions in the memory of Mrs. Dahl may do so to the Arthur L. and Lenna T. Dahl Memorial Scholarship Fund in care of Stanford University.

Ferris Bagley

The death of Ferris Bagley occurred on Tuesday morning in a Peninsula nursing home, following a brief illness. With his wife, Estella, he had made his home in Pebble Beach since 1949. Mr. Bagley was a native of Jefferson, Oregon, where he was born in 1899.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Bagley leaves a daughter, Mrs. Verne Sellin of San Francisco, and three grandchildren.

Prior to his retirement, he was associated for thirteen years with Golden State Ltd., now Foremost, and had served as the company's director, vice president and production manager.

Family services for Mr. Bagley were held Tuesday in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, under the direction of Paul Mortuary.

Mrs. Reinhard Visiting

Mrs. Franklin G. Reinhard of Minneapolis is a visitor at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald V. Barron of Carmel Valley. She will be here for a week or ten days as part of an extended tour of California and Mexico, where she has many friends.

The Barrons' son, Jerry, who is a sophomore at the University of California, Berkeley, cancelled plans for skiing at Squaw Valley to spend the Washington's Birthday holiday weekend at home in honor of the arrival of his grandmother. Jerry is on the slopes nearly every weekend and spent most of the Spring "break" at Squaw Valley, returning home, however, in time to pay his respects to the family of Senator Fred Farr following services for the Senator's wife, the late Janet Farr.

Leslie Bennett Engaged

Leslie Bennett and John Julian of Pebble Beach were feted on St. Valentine's Day with an unusual party given by Leslie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bennett, for the announcement of the young couple's engagement. Guests were drawn to an Italian gypsy campfire on the Stillwater Cove beach, which was dotted with multi-colored balloons. Party fare was dispensed from flower-decked tables and a rustic Italian wine barrel. Gaily colored spaghetti bibs, inscribed Les and John, told of their intention to wed, and friends' congratulations mingled with the music of guitar and banjo.

Leslie has two sisters, Lane and Gwen, and a brother, Brian Bennett, all of Pebble Beach. She will graduate in June from the University of California, where she is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and was recently elected to the Senior Hall of Fame. A physical education major, she plans to do graduate work at Stanford.

John is the son of John Gordon Julian of Pebble Beach and Mrs. Janet Julian of Santa Barbara. He is the brother of Mrs. Terry Wilbur of North Highlands, and of Sandra and Richard Julian of Pebble Beach.

In June he will complete his studies of business administration at Menlo College. Following a June wedding in Carmel, the couple plan to reside on the San Francisco Peninsula.

Young Sailors Organize

An opportunity for any young people interested in sailing or in learning to sail has become a reality with the formation of a junior program under the auspices of the Monterey Peninsula Yacht Club. Advisors for the group, which meets on the second Tuesday of each month in the Club quarters opposite the Custom House, are Harvey Kilpatrick of Carmel and Roy Nickerson of Monterey.

Local boat owners and Yacht Club members will cooperate in teaching the elements of sailing and of racing. With acquisition of skill, the junior members may later become regular crew members on a boat, or be a part of a crew "pool" from which skippers may draw when necessary.

Other activities of the junior yachtsmen (and girls) include the raising of funds through the sale of box lunches for purchase of junior sailing craft.

Any youngster interested in membership may obtain further information by attending the next meeting or by getting in touch with the advisors.

Musical For Woman's Club

Members of the Carmel Woman's Club are looking forward to a concert on Monday by the Allegro Trio. The trio is composed of the Reverend H.M.M. Nicholas of All Saints' Episcopal Church, violin; Mary Dobel, cello; and Camille Olaeta, piano. A dramatic surprise will complete the program.

Mrs. William A. Sumner, hospitality chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. E. M. Porter, Mrs. George Marshall and Mrs. Raymond Taylor. Mrs. Charles A. Trumbly, Mrs. Harry Wingard, Mrs. Ramona Gahl and Mrs. S. M. Burwell will preside at the tea tables.

Life Diplomas Awarded

On January 20 the Monterey County Board of Education granted life diplomas to two members of the Carmel schools. Miss Ruth I. Thomsen, a nurse in the elementary schools, holds a credential in health and development. General secondary credential holder, William G. Wakefield is director of recreation for the district.

Mrs. Hugh Dormody Married

Rear Admiral Charles C. Hartman (USN ret.) and his bride, the former Mrs. Hugh (Florence) Dormody, are enjoying a Honolulu honeymoon following their marriage at St. John's Episcopal Church at Del Monte on February 14.

Dean Bernard Lovgren officiated at the ceremony which was witnessed by a small group of family and close friends. Mrs. Miriam Godwin was Mrs. Hartman's only attendant, and Rear Admiral E. E. Yeomans (USN ret.) was Admiral Hartman's best man. A reception at the Beach Club was given for the newlyweds by Mrs. Godwin and Mrs. Carl Stanley.

Mrs. Hartman, a much sought-after commentator for fashion shows and other events, has been active in the Monterey County Symphony Guild and in little theatre productions on the Peninsula. She is the widow of the late Dr. Hugh Dormody, a former mayor of Monterey and founder, with his brother Dr. Horace Dormody, of the Monterey Hospital.

Admiral Hartman, a former commandant of the Eleventh Naval District, is executive vice-president of San Diegans, Inc. and a member of the Harbor Commission of San Diego, where he and his wife will make their home after returning from the Islands. He has two daughters, Mrs. Paul A. Sims of Norwalk, Connecticut, and Diane Hartman of San Diego; and a son, Charles C. Hartman, Jr., of Washington, D.C.

Crespi Mission Hall Reopens

A remodeled and redecorated Crespi Hall will reopen Tuesday for the first parish social to be held there since it was closed last November for extensive repairs. The occasion is the 22nd anniversary luncheon of the Mothers Club of Junipero Serra School, and since the mothers have all worked hard to beautify Crespi Hall, it is fitting that they should initiate its use. Funds for the project were raised at the Fiesta de San Carlos de Borromeo held at Carmel Mission Basilica last November through the joint efforts of all the parish organizations.

Mrs. William Hoyt, president of the Mothers Club, has invited all past presidents to join the birthday celebration at a pot-luck luncheon at 12:30 p.m., which will feature a variety of homemade dishes. Singer Joe Messineo of Monterey will entertain with a selection of classical pieces, accompanied by Mrs. Julius de Vera on the piano.

Mrs. Phillip Congilio, chairman, has appointed as members of the luncheon committee Mrs. Louis Haddad, co-chairman; Mrs. Emilio Odello, decorations and entertainment; Mrs. Sal Nicita, publicity; and Mrs. Gene Vandervort and Mrs. William Conlan, reservations.

Reservations may be made by phoning Mrs. Vandervort, 624-8801, or Mrs. Conlan, 659-2105. Tickets, which are $1.50 per person, will entitle the holder to a chance at the door prizes.

Two Weddings To Plan

Mrs. Audrey Martin Tetley is indulging in a brief vacation before plunging into any more social events or plans for the forthcoming weddings of both her daughter and her son.

Jane Tetley, whose engagement to Dennis Robert Escola of San Jose was announced in December, is to be married at Carmel Mission Basilica on June 26, following her graduation from the University of California in Berkeley.

The engagement of Richard Tetley to Miss Michele Mason was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Mason of Portland, Oregon. The young couple, who plan a late summer wedding, both graduated from the University of Oregon in 1964. Richard is now working toward his master's degree and will continue his studies in plant physiology.

there. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and Miss Mason is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is presently doing graduate work at Portland State.

Following announcement of the engagement in Portland, a party was given in honor of the couple by their friends at the University of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Mason were present at the event, as was their son, Bruce Mason, who is also a student at the University.

Named To Dean's List

Among students named to the Dean's honor list at California State Polytechnic College for the fall quarter are Barbara M. Strachwitz and Richard W. Anderson.

Miss Strachwitz, the daughter of Mrs. F. Strachwitz, is a third year English major. Richard Anderson, son of Mrs. Ward P. Anderson of Pebble Beach, is majoring in ornamental horticulture.

By ELIZABETH FULLER JONES

ARMY BAND REUNION

A reunion of members of the 402nd A.S.F. Band that served during World War II took place recently in San Francisco and Mrs. Philip Johnson (Marge as she is known to her host of friends) of Big Sur, was one of the group. Mrs. Johnson served for almost four years as a warrant officer with the WAC's and as director of the forty-three member Army Band. Also at the reunion were Alice Lee of Ohio, Mildred Main of Pacifica, formerly of Indiana, Jessie Enos of Pittsburgh, formerly of Ohio and Dorothy Colley of Berkeley, formerly of Texas.

Following the gathering in San Francisco, Marge Johnson and Alice Lee drove to Southern California (via Big Sur and Highway One) where Mrs. Johnson visited with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Muelrath of Hermosa Beach. The Muelraths are property owners in Big Sur and frequent visitors to the area. Mrs. Johnson also visited with Miss Dolly Clare of San Marino, a former member of the staff at Big Sur Lodge, Pfeiffer State Park.

After graduation from the Army Music School in Washington, the members of the 402nd A.S.F. Band traveled extensively throughout the United States making appearances at countless functions, industrial plants, schools, and at recruiting and bond drive gatherings.

NEW GRANGE MEMBERS

New members of the Big Sur Grange, Big Sur, installed at the regular meeting of the organization were Captain Cooper School teacher Lynn Cadwell and Mrs. Cadwell; educator, author, Dr. Don Parker and Mrs. Parker, and California Highway Patrol Officer Donald D. Thomas and Mrs. Thomas.

CONVALESCENT HOSPITAL NEEDS BILLIARD TABLE

Mr. Herbert Houk of Big Sur is presently a patient in Carmel Convalescent Hospital, and his wife, Rose Houk, has found from her many visits there that a billiard table would be a very useful and much appreciated gift, for those who would be able to use such a game table. Mrs. Houk has determined that 39 S&H Green Stamp books would purchase an adequate billiard table. If readers of this column have completed books and/or loose stamps that they would care to contribute to this worthwhile cause, please send to Mrs. Mary Fleenor c/o Post's Rancho Sierra Mar, Big Sur or to Mrs. Norma Harnett, c/o Pfeiffer Big Sur State Park, Big Sur.

BACK PACK—BURRO TRIP
The three day holiday, ending on Washington's Birthday, will doubtless linger long in the memory of twenty-eight individuals who hiked and camped together, during that time, within the Los Padres National Forest and the Ventana Wild Area. The group, Sierra Club members of the local Ventana Chapter and their guests, left early Saturday morning from the gathering point at Los Padres Dam and hiked to Danish Creek Camp for their first noon-day stop. Camp that night was at Rattlesnake on the Rattlesnake Creek, a beautifully situated, but little used camping area. Sunday morning the hikers moved on to Little Pine for a mid-day meal and rest and camped that night at Pat Springs, a much used site.

of the food and everyone shared in the preparation.

At the conclusion of the three day adventure, it was generally agreed by all of the participants, including the writer, that it was an unusually enjoyable and rewarding experience.

1965 Poetry Contest Entries Close April 1

California's 26th annual statewide poetry competition, offering cash prizes and sweepstakes trophies to young as well as mature poets, is under way with entries closing April 1.

The competition this year includes two "open" adult contests; one limited to college students; four open only to members of the California Federation of Chaparral Poets; two for senior high school students, and two for junior high school poets.

The open adult contests are for 24-line lyrics for folk ballads, and a 12-line humorous or light verse contest. The college student competition is a 24-line limit in any form on the subject of California. Prizes in these three categories are $15, $10 and $5.

For Chaparral members, with a $25 first prize, the first is a 24-line limit on any subject, but specifying that rhyme and meter are required. The second is for love poems in any form within a 24-line limit. The third is for sonnets, and the fourth for Tanka forms.

Rules provide that contestants must be residents of California, with a number of other provisions to be followed. Information can be obtained by writing to Alice Woods, 849 West 69th Street, Los Angeles, 90044. Contest entries should be sent in the required manner to Katherine Haproff, 2314 Willow Lane, West Covina, California, 97790, who is adult contest chairman. Prize winners will be announced May 29 during Chaparral's annual convention at Disneyland Hotel.

Nice day for a dryer.

But then again, so is every day. Because in addition to letting you dry the wash day or night—in any weather—a dryer dries better than anything under the sun. For example, with new damp dry settings, clothes come out just right for ironing. And some things need no ironing at all. Clothes also come out as clean as they went in. No clothesline marks, dust or dirt. Dryers also have a real soft touch. All your laundry comes out light and fluffy.

So far we haven't even mentioned how much work a dryer saves. But it will save you lugging two tons of wet wash a year.

Art News . . .

In order to secure the maximum entries from Peninsula artists, a new deadline of April 15 has been established by the Visitors Convention Bureau for the Travel Poster Contest. Judges for the contest are Gus Arriola, Eldon Dedin, Dick Brickner and Colden Whitman.

All submissions must be original art in full colors in any medium desired, and the unframed size must be 22" x 28." Posters received prior to judging will be on display at the Casa Munras, and an awards luncheon to announce the winners will be arranged at a later date.

First prize is $300; second, $150; and third, $50.

A new art gallery and photographic laboratory appears on the Peninsula Monday, when Lester Kierstad Henderson and his wife, Anne, will present their initial exhibit at 712 Hawthorne Street in Monterey. An invitational preview will be held there tomorrow night, and the show will run through April.

The artists represented are Donald Teague, well known water colorist; Ralph and Martha Cahoon, whose primitive oils are like a visit back to the 19th century; Vernon Smith, showing three dimensional polychrome panels and screens; Martha Mood, whose work is known to many through the pages of national magazines, will exhibit several of her tapestries, "paintings" done in fabric; and Felix de Cossio, portrait painter.

The new gallery will be supplemental to the one maintained for three years by Mr. Henderson in the Court of the Golden Eagle in Carmel.

Donald Teague, N.A., and Howard E. Smith, A.N.A., both of Carmel, will exhibit at the 140th annual exhibition of the National Academy of Design at 1083 Fifth Avenue, New York, opening February 25 and continuing through March 21. The exhibition will include 387 showings, paintings in oil, sculptures, prints, drawings, and watercolors by artists from 31 states and the District of Columbia.

A one-man show of serigraphs, mosaics, and jewel paintings by Carmel artist Irene Lagorio, under the sponsorship of the San Mateo-Burlingame Junior Auxiliary of the Stanford Children's Convalescent Hospital, will be held at the Garden Cafe Gallery, 1447 Burlingame Avenue, Burlingame, from March 1 through 31. A reception in honor of the artist will take place on Sunday, March 7, at the gallery, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Miss Irene Lagorio, Carmel artist, who comprehends the Dow Jones Averages with the same ease with which she wields a paint brush, spoke on the subject of "Art and Business" at a dinner meeting of the San Francisco Hotel Accountants held at the Mark Thomas Inn recently. Dinner was preceded by a cocktail party in the Terrace Room, hosted by Mark Thomas, Howard "Bud" Allen, and Lloyd Knox.

The Mark Thomas Inn contains in its collection several major works by the artist. The most recent addition is a shimmering brass and copper sculpture of "Bird in Reeds," which was commissioned specifically for the Gold Room.

A one-man show by Patricia Cunningham will initiate the official opening of the newly paneled Beardsley Room of the Carmel Art Association, starting March 4 and running to April 8.

Artist members of the Association are invited to the opening of the new gallery on March 4 from 5-7 p.m. in the Beardsley Room.

At the same time, the rest of the Gallery will be given over to a new show of paintings and sculpture by Association members, to run to April 8.

Edifying Excerpts For Erstwhile Exiles

In response to a recent inquiry from an out-of-town subscriber, it occurs to this writer that a summary of recent happenings in and around Carmel might be timely and informative. We were asked about the rainfall. On the Monterey Peninsula, and particularly Carmel, the season's precipitation amounts to 14.12 inches since July 1, 1964. However, since the winter rains began in December, there have been intermittent storms soaking the ground, totaling about 13 inches, without any appreciable damage.

Rainfall in the entire Monterey Bay area has been heavy in varying degrees. Big Sur has had in the neighborhood of 50 inches, which is also the approximate figure for Boulder Creek in Santa Cruz county. Precipitation was less in the Salinas Valley, with about seven inches around King City and Soledad.

The hills are green, and the cattlemen are happy. The acacia trees are in massive yellow bloom, and the wild violets are in flower. There were no floods, although a few sandbags were put out in the danger spots.

Building and construction goes apace. Notably on Carmel Hill, on the Del Monte properties, there is an extensive development in progress, with two concrete bridges nearing completion to provide access to an immense shopping center, and probably some residential construction in the future.

There are also rumors about a new development near the new Junior High School, on lands which are owned by a corporation headed by August Nieto, and to include a golf course. This was reported in detail in our January 21 issue.

Residential building in Carmel has kept pace with general development, with a house here and there always in process of construction. Land values are firm and steadily increasing, and the inevitable trend points to the fact that real estate investments at this time offer very attractive prospects for the future. And while Carmel itself will not noticeably change in appearance, the surrounding areas are in for some explosive growth. And this includes Carmel Valley.

Within the next few years, with the construction of the projected freeways, it is expected that there will be a tremendous increase in population in all parts of the Monterey Peninsula, according to our best sources of information and observation.

Two New Bridges For Coast Highway

Construction of a new bridge on State Sign Route 1 just south of Carmel will get underway shortly as Division of Highways began advertising the project for bids last week.

Bids will be opened March 17, 1965, in Sacramento. Actual work should begin early in April, depending upon when the contract is awarded to the qualified low bidder.

The proposed project consists of the construction of improved road approaches and a 40' wide concrete bridge across San Jose Creek, about 2 1/2 miles southwest of Carmel. The new bridge will replace a 34' wide redwood timber structure erected by Monterey County in 1926.

Construction of a new bridge across Buck Creek, approximately 13 miles south of Big Sur in Monterey County, will get underway shortly as the State Division of Highways began advertising the project for bids recently.

Bids will be opened March 3, 1965 in Sacramento. Actual work should begin later in the month, depending upon when the contract is awarded to the qualified low bidder. Approximately $430,000 in State Highway funds is available for the project.

Newly Instituted Clinic To Provide Treatment For Hard Of Hearing And Speech Defects At Medical Center

A significant and welcome addition to Monterey Peninsula's medical facilities is the institution of a full-time program of research, diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation in the field of speech and hearing disorders, and is the culmination of the efforts of Dr. Jack L. Mahoney to provide a clinic to take care of a potential 20,000 patients from all areas of Monterey County on referral from their physicians.

The Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing is an incorporated, independent, non-profit organization, recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a tax exempt, scientific and charitable institution. The Institute has obtained the approval of its functions and activities by the Monterey County Medical Society. Dr. Gene England is director, and has stated that the services of the institute will, through referrals from family physicians, be made available to all individuals under the jurisdiction of any agency, regardless of income.

The institute, which is located at 969 Pacific Street, Monterey, plans to relate closely to the Gateway Center, Tri-County School for Deaf and Hard of Hearing, Monterey County Public Schools, the Human Research Unit of the Presidio, the Naval Postgraduate School, area hospitals and other agencies. Dr. England, who holds a Ph.D. in Speech Pathology and Audiology, will be assisted by a staff of speech and hearing specialists, directly in the employ of the Institute, in addition to the voluntary services of physicians, surgeons and other specialists concerned with speech and hearing disorders.

In addition to the immediate benefits to individuals receiving treatment at the clinic, there will be multiple long range benefits from the Institute. Information obtained will form the basis of a full time research program, all of which will be made available to practitioners in the field throughout the county.

The Institute elected its first board of trustees on September 14, 1964. The members are: Dr. Jack L. Mahoney, Otologist, who provided the inspiration for the project; State Senator Fred Farr; Mrs. Hans von Richter, vice president of the Monterey Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.; Lloyd Swanson, director of special education services in Monterey; Charles Page, attorney and president of the Monterey Community Chest; and Reverend C. E. Wilson, chaplain of the Robert Louis Stevenson School.

An important facet of the newly instituted service, as has been pointed out, is that no one is excluded from treatment because of inability to afford the services required. Fees in other cases are charged according to the type of service rendered and the length of time involved. No geographical restrictions will be imposed as a condition of treatment, according to the Institute's director.

Invite Nurses To Tea
At Red Cross Chapter

The Carmel and Monterey Bay Chapters of the American Red Cross are inviting members of the nursing profession to a tea on the birthday anniversary of Jane A. Delano, wartime director of the Red Cross Nursing Service. All nurses, active or retired, military or civilian, are invited to drop in at the Carmel Chapter on Friday, March 12, between 2 and 5 p.m. The invitations read "come as you are" so that on-duty nurses may feel free to come directly from work, according to Carmel's "Chapter Chatter."

Local Teacher Writes
Grammar Clinic Book

Dr. Idele Sullens, English and humanities instructor at Monterey Peninsula College, signed a contract this week for the publication of her first book.

"Grammar for the College Clinic" will be published by Prentice-Hall, Inc., in the fall of this year. A workbook, it was designed, according to Dr. Sullens, for the student who, upon entering college, reveals a need for remedial assistance.

A resident of Carmel, Dr. Sullens joined the MPC faculty in 1958. She earned both her A.B. and Ph.D. at Stanford University and took her M.A. in English at the University of Washington.

Announcement of the imminent publication of a book by another MPC faculty member, Max Tadlock of the speech department, was made last month.

ROUNDTABLE ON ASIA

In cooperation with Mr. Malik Abdullah, president of the International Club at Monterey Peninsula College, a Roundtable on Asia will be presented by the World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Casa Estrada, Monterey.

A similar roundtable on Africa in January was highly successful. Miss Semret Dessalegn of Ethiopia and Mr. Joseph Tettah of Ghana spoke briefly about their respective countries before a question and answer period. Also participants in that event were Miss Rosabelle Hamann, international student advisor at Monterey Peninsula College and a recent traveler to Africa, and Major Charles E. Orr, Jr., a specialist on Africa.

MUSEUM EXHIBITS

The rooms of the museum located in the "old rectory" of Carmel Mission Basilica have been rearranged and exhibits added. The new exhibits feature items of Indian lore. The photographs showing the rebuilding of the Mission have been reframed and regrouped and will be of interest to all.

"RED" TOURNAMENT
WINNERS

Serious though the ladies were about their golf, everyone managed to find something red to wear, and some very pretty outfits appeared on the greens for the Monterey Pines Women's Golf Club "Red" Tournament at the Del Monte Golf Course on Washington's Birthday. Top honors were taken by Jane King, Gladys Griffin and Hazel Tick. Scores were as follows:

First Flight — Jane King, 76; Fern Frizzell, 79; Cleo McCoy, 81.

Second Flight — Gladys Griffin, 77; Margaret Cowan, 78; Kate Bier, 79.

Third Flight — Hazel Tick, 70; Mildred Myers, 72; Judy Beach, 75; Jan Castro, 84.

Consolation prizes went to Germaine Flamand, Grace Babin, Mary Cook, Vicki Adams and Mary Beach.

Tee prizes were awarded to Phyllis Harkless, Carol Vogel and Jean Radde.

Dorothy Marshall, Tournament Chairman, received a hearty vote of thanks for her planning of a very successful tournament.

"CAESAR AND CLEOPATRA"
NEXT AT CIRCLE THEATRE

"Caesar and Cleopatra," the lavish historical comedy by Bernard Shaw, will open on March 5 at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre. Rosamond Goodrich, who played Annie Sullivan in "The Miracle Worker," makes her debut as a director with the Shaw opus.

The title roles in this twentieth-century interpretation of ancient history have been played by many theatrical greats, including Vivien Leigh, Lilli Palmer, Laurence Olivier, Claude Rains and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, in recent decades. The play, a sure-fire mixture of Edwardian pageantry and Shavian paradox, has been a continuous success since its first production over sixty years ago.

The Circle stage has been re-oriented for the new production by designer Rick Beck-Meyer. A raised playing area now occupies the west end of the theatre, surrounded on three sides by the audience. Much greater height and width have been provided in the new design, allowing for such Shavian shenanigans as dropping Cleopatra into the Mediterranean from the terrace of the Alexandrian lighthouse.

"Caesar and Cleopatra" will have a run of seven weekends, closing on April 18. Benefit performances for community organizations, and special matinee or evening shows for school groups, may be scheduled now by telephoning Circle Theatre manager Nick Zanides.

Concerted Action Needed To Crystallize Carmel's Future

(Continued from Page One) "they" are the people themselves, the unorganized minority or majority, the people who sit on their hands and keep silent when it is high time to be heard? No government can be more omnipotent than the people who put them in office. The governing bodies strive to do what is expected of them, and in Carmel they are trying very hard to do just this. But they need guidance. They need help.

What has been done is past history. What has been constructed can be retained. But what about the future, the immediate future, and the policy for the more distant future? At last week's City Council meeting there was a pitiful handful of citizens present who stepped forward to voice their opinions. The sentiment was there, certainly, but woefully lacking in weight and persuasiveness. Some of these individuals may have been hacking away for years. They may unquestionably be representatives of others. But, what is most needed now, in this writer's opinion and observation, is concerted organization of the people, the citizens, the property owners, the business operators, the laymen, the old-timers, the basic Carmelites, to express in no uncertain terms what are their wishes as regards the immediate policy on what is to be done here and now for the future of Carmel. The expansionist, the modernizer, the developer, the eager constructionist are all standing on our borders waiting to rush in. What do YOU intend to do about it?

Monte Verde At 15th To Get Stop Sign

County supervisors have approved the installation of a stop sign at the intersection of Monte Verde Street and 15th Avenue in Carmel, due to heavy traffic in that area and potential accident hazard. The intersection is actually outside the city limits of Carmel, which necessitated county action, according to a report from the county road department.
